

All,

For those that may not be aware, Stanley Taylor (long-time IBS 1000-yard shooter and former Long Range Committee Chairman) suffered a total loss shop fire about a week ago.

As Stanley's friends we want to help him recover. He does have insurance on the structure (and some contents) but he had a 30-year collection of shooting tools, equipment and machinery that will be very expensive to replace.

Today I was able to establish a new bank account at Jersey Shore State Bank in Williamsport, PA. Technically, the account is my name. Current banking laws require a EIN if we were to create a bank account for the Taylor Fund.

We expect to keep the account live for about 2-3 months with disbursements to Stanley every two weeks or so.

The IBS Treasurer (Bill Gebhardt) has agreed to serve as "inhouse auditor" and to oversee the account. This Fund, however, is NOT affiliated with the IBS or its finances.

Feel free to contribute via check made out to "Jeff Stover" with the notation on the memo line:

TAYLOR FUND.
