

April 10, 2016

Saturday March 19, MSSA kicked off their 2016 IBS shooting season. Despite the gale force wind forecast, we had a record turnout of shooters. With temps in the low fifties and winds gusting 25-30 miles per hour, it felt like winter time. Overcast skies and minimal mirage were the only good attributes of the day. After the record setting conditions from the last two previous years, I guess Mother Nature had some catching up to do.

The match kicked off at 9:00 AM and everyone endured the conditions until mid-afternoon. Though everybody was chilled to the bone, it was apparent that the Midwest guys came to shoot.

Tom Jacobs, Carroll Lance and Kent Sickmeyer were apparently unaffected by the conditions taking the top three places in two gun competition. Looking at the scores, the local guys may as well have stayed at home! (No more 'Home Turf Advantage' jokes please) We also had a good contingent of rookie shooters, some of which was their 1st IBS match. We hope they had a good time as well.

As usual, we appreciate the efforts everyone made and came to Memphis to kick off the season & support us at MSSA. We even had a few from as far away as Wisconsin and the Dakota's. Also, we hope to again see the unusual rookie turnout at our next match on April 16th and 17th. If you can make it, we'll have the range open at Noon on Friday the 15th for BS and Practice.
