

April 10, 2016

Sunday March 20, MSSA hosted Match #2 of our 2016 IBS shooting season. Despite the cool windy forecast, we again had a record turnout of shooters with most returning from Saturdays match. With better temperatures in the morning, upper fifties for the high, and winds never reaching the forecast prediction, shooting was much more tolerable than the day before. Overcast skies cleared, and abundant sun shine made the thermometer look like a liar. However, mirage replaced the winds from Saturdays match and made the shooting a formidable challenge to say the least.

The match kicked off at 8:30 AM and everyone tried to refocus their eyes until mid-afternoon. Though the shooting was tough, it was apparent that the cream once again rose to the top. The Midwest contingent again KA, allowing some of their buddies to join in from Saturday's match.

Andy Ferguson topped the field with some good shooting. (He had to shake off the rust on Saturday) Carroll Lance never went to bed after Saturdays match and continued his shooting display from the previous day. Jason Walker practiced during the Saturday match and turned in a great third place for Match #2. Richard Schatz obviously thawed out Saturday night and brought his good stuff for Sunday & James Phillips propped up the Tennessee contingent with fifth place. (Mike Moses & Darrell Dacus....where are you?) Looking at the scores, the local guys may as well have stayed at home again!

We also had all the rookie shooters return on Sunday. We hope their weekend was worth their time.

As usual, we appreciate the efforts everyone made by making it to Memphis to kick off the season & support us at MSSA. Also, we hope to again see the unusual rookie turnout at our next match on April 16th and 17th. If you can make it, we'll have the range open at Noon on Friday the 15th for BS and Practice. I hope the weather man is right on the Long Range Forecast!
