

Capital City Rifle & Pistol Club
Maine State 100/200 Yards
August 12 & 13, 2017

This Maine 100/200 States is held at Capitol City Rifle and Pistol Club of Augusta and since last year there have been some major improvements. With the financial support of IBS shooters, the wooden bench tops were replaced with concrete benches. The shape of the bench top is no longer the horse shoe style and is now the more common T-shape with rounded, soft corners. Also new is the target frame system. By all accounts, shooters expressed kind and appreciative remarks for the much needed changes.

The weather forecast for the weekend was gloomy predicting cloudy skies and threat of showers each day. Although such forecasts can impact attendance, that was not the case. Both of last week's 200/300 National champions were present hoping to continue their dominance. Both were among the forty-one (41) guns going to the line Saturday and thirty-seven (37) on Sunday.. As promised by the weather guru, Saturday started with rain until we started shooting. With all the flags and probes wet, conditions appeared soft, and for the most part, they were, albeit subtle. At some point in the morning, the sun broke through and the day finished with beautiful weather. Twenty-seven (27) vfs and three hunter shooters posted 250's. Check out the results as some of the scores were impressive.

Sunday started overcast with remnants of pre-dawn showers but with a bright daybreak, the breezes started early as well as the mirage. For the first half of Sunday the wind was in the 5-10 mph category, but around match 3, they became more forceful and very switchy. By match 4, there were only two shooters clean, and then there was but one. That one dropped his last shot, which will linger for some time as it wasn't the first time to happen.

This is where I take editorial and match director prerogative to thank the many people/shooters that helped me with run the match. The names are numerous and with the fear of omitting someone, I will not try to list everyone. Shooting two guns didn't leave much time to be match director. With amazing people, I didn't need to. Words fail me, but you know who you are. Please know that I am so appreciative of your willingness and support to assist me. The match proceeded flawlessly due to your deeds. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Randy
