

BELL CITY RIFLE CLUB
SOUTHINGTON, CT
OCTOBER 20 - 21, 2018

The annual Bell City Barbeque Match was held this past weekend. The weather was supposed to be very windy Saturday and Sunday; However, Saturday turned out to be quite reasonable, and the top scores showed it. Gary Slawik in VFS at 100 yards won with a nice 250x22, John Cascarino was second at 250x20, and Mike Tunis was third at 250x19.

The barbeque food was enjoyed by everyone, and the camaraderie was even better.

Then Sunday came. The wind was something else. You could hardly shoot a sighter, rack another round in and the flags had changed. Points were dropping right and left.

As usual, a few shooters found the right combination to score.

The VFS at 200 yards was won by John Cascarino with a 247x9. Travis Benoit was second with a 244x5, and Don Cameron was third at 241x3.

The Hunter class fared well on Saturday with Orland Bunker at 100 (I'm sorry, Brian) Creedmoring Brian Fitch with a 250x15. Don Cameron was third with a 249x10.

Then Sunday came. The Hunter class at 200 yards had quite a time of it. Peter Hills won with a 241x2, Brian Fitch was second at 238x2 and Orland Bunker was third with a 237x1.

The VFS Grand Agg was won by John Cascarino; Travis Benoit, second; and Don Cameron, third. The Hunter class Grand Agg was won by Brian Fitch; Orland Bunker, second; and Peter Hills, third.

The Bell City, New Jersey, match was once again won by New Jersey 750x48 to Bell City's 750x43. Congratulations to New Jersey. See you next year!

All of the Bell City matches for 2018 could not have happened without my co-partner, Ron Mattson. I also want to send a special thanks to Don Cameron, our IT wizard, for all his hard work. Many thanks to Ron, Gail, Sue Fitch and also my wife Aimee who were responsible for scoring the matches. Thank you to all the ladies that helped support our matches.
