2026 SEASON POINTS — Shooter of the Year Standings

Ranked by total SOY points earned in 2026. M1–M10 are the ten Northwest 1000-Yard matches in date order; NW is their sum. Nationals points carry the 1.25× multiplier, and record-setting bonuses are flat points. Every match uses the 2026 SOY multiplier of 20.29% (§9.2). A dot (·) means no points from that event. Shooters on equal points share a rank. Tier, Career Total and Career Rank are cumulative across every season on record (1995–2026) and include 2026; Career Before is the total going into this season. Click any heading to sort — numeric columns open highest-first, Name opens A–Z, and a second click reverses. Rank, tier and name stay pinned as you scroll sideways.

DATA NOTES

2026 totals come from the 2026 column of the career standings (v20261111). Each shooter's M1–M10 sum equals the Northwest season report to four decimals.

Per-match points come from the individual match results files. Match 3 (April 11) was checked target by target against the Saturday score sheet (NW_1000yd_April_11_2026_Saturday_scores.csv): all 68 targets agree, as do the SOY points in the Match 3 data export. That export is filed as 20260412_Match_4_match_data.csv but holds the April 11 targets.

A second results file labeled April 11, 2026 – Match 3 shares none of the 68 targets on the April 11 score sheet. Its scores are the March 28 (Match 1) scores, run against a different competitor and bench list, so it is not used.

Nationals points are the remainder after Northwest points and record bonuses; each resolves to whole raw points × 1.25 × 20.29%.

Name spellings follow the career standings. The match and season reports list McAlpin as "McAplin"; the Match 3 results file lists Pilant as "Evan Pilant"; one season-report row lists "Van Santford John" with no points alongside "Vansantford John".

Revised 2026-11-11: Trystan Williams' record-setting bonus is raised from 4 to 8 points for a further record, discovered after the 2026-11-09 edition. His 2026 total is now 29.3045 (career 58.1185), which moves him from second to first in the 2026 standings. Tom Mousel (25.761) moves to second. The career standings (v20261111) carry the same figures, including in their Milestones table.

Equal-points ties (shared rank): Kulzer, Glenn; McAlpin, Ken; Bosse, Chris; Converse, Paul.
