

Visalia, Ca Dale Wimp Shooting Range. April 21-22. Headlines: for those of you who have never been to Visalia to shoot, you should plan a trip. We had excellent conditions all weekend long. They have renovated the range and it is fantastic.

We had 20 shooters out for two days, all unlimited, all (4) 100 yard shoot. Now for the meat and potatoes, ladies and gentlemen. If you didn't shoot a teen agg. Sat morning you would've finished in ninth place or worse and it didn't get any easier from there.

I'm writing this from memory so bare with me. Mike Sosenko got off to a great start with a .142, followed by Joe Stanovich .158 and Lou Murdica with a .169. Keith Cottrell had small group with a .088.

Saturday afternoon saw Jim Nicolas register a fine .128, followed by Dennis Thornbury .134 and Keith Cottrell .144, small group was Jim Nicolas with a .053. We were waiting for the breeze to pick-up but it never did. High 50 degrees in the morning, 75 during the day.

Sunday brought Joe Sanovich to the range early 5:25 am wondering around with a flashlight looking for a small group, I guess. Like Saturday, Sunday was beautiful. Match got underway at 8:00 am, with just one relay we were on are way home at 2:00 pm. Why do benchrest shooters want to get home so bad on Sunday? Most are retired and have nothing to do on Monday! I'm just as guilty as the rest.

Sunday morning saw Mike Sosenko shinning again with a fine .159, Jim Nicolas in second with a .160, sweet Lou Murdice in third with a .164. Small group was shot by George Pazillo with a .079. Francis Lee was 11th with a .199. That reminds me, we now have only 19 shooters as Gary Ocock got scared and went home. Just kidding! He was having car trouble and wanted to make the 9 hr. drive in day light, just in case.

Sunday afternoon saw yours truly with a yardage win, I thought my barrel was going bad, but it isn't, read the wind flags dummy! Marty Childers .157, second to Lou Murdica .175 and the old man Gary Sinclair with a fine .179. Small group and possible new IBS record was Lou Murdica's .036!

Short note: Gavin Lichenwalter is a Junior new shooter, he is 12 years of age and loves to shoot Benchrest. Lou Murdica bought him a Bullseye Camera System so his Grandma Mary can watch him shoot. Mike Sosenko has given Gavin a new chambered barrel for his bag gun. Grandpa Gary has purchased everything Gavin needs to compete. Hats off to these folks for time and effort in welcoming a new Junior shooter.

No trophies for 2 day winners. Jim Nichols .165, Marty Childers .172, Dennis Thornbury .172, Keith Cottrell .176, Mike Sosenko .182.
