Fairfax Rod & Gun

200 Yard Score Match, Manassas, VA
January 11, 2012

Winners Wayne Shaw, Don Jones and Herb Llewellyn

For January it was a very nice day for a match at the Fairfax R&G range. Temperature crept up to 50 by the end of the shoot but as the temperature increased so did the wind. Herb Llewellyn's winning score of 248-9x pretty much tells the story on the tricky winds. But it was sunny with no precipitation so by January standards a pretty nice day.

3rd Match Winter League

The first match of 2010 was met with mild (for January) conditions. While the forecast was for warmer weather than what we had, it was still a pretty nice day. Except for the wind, that is. It was really switchy and the left wind gave a lot more push than some anticipated, thus the lower than usual scores. Our lone factory shooter had a scope problem in the 2nd match, but managed to get it straightened out to finish strong. Thanks to everyone for coming out, and to the target crew recruits for a fine job.
