Orrington Rod and Gun Club

Orrington Maine
14 April, 2013

Overcast for most of the day with temps starting in low 40s and at day's end were low 50s. Light rain showers came in during match 4 and was off and on for the last two matches. Winds were very mild for most of the day and at times downright dead, 3-5 mph. For me it was worth slightly more than a bullet hole of vertical when the breeze blew compared to none. The difficulty was determining when the threshold was present or not. No matter how you look at it, today was far nicer conditions than last week's 25 mph gusting to more.
