200 Yard Match

The Fairfax Winter League got off to a cold, windy start. Winds were tricky, switching often and gusting up to 4 or 5 rings, maybe more. Wayne Shaw showed us all how with his 6 Begg's. Who says you need a .30 for Benchrest? Wayne, Herb, Kim and Dick were snapping at his heels, but couldn't stay clean. There were two 4X targets, both shot by the Llewellyns, with 49-4X being the heart breaker.

We're trying for 6 matches for the Winter League with the top 4 scores (score + X count for those who like to hear it that way) determining the winner. This is assuming the weather will cooperate and we will be able to shoot all the matches. If not, adjustments will be made to try and keep it fair and rewarding for the top shooters.
