200 Yard Match

Today turned out to be a great day for shooting, not at all what we had expected going in. Temperature got up to the low 30s and the wind was not much of a factor, just that usual Fairfax switchiness that kept us on our toes. We had three fellows join us from out near Harrisonburg to try Benchrest for the first time and hope they come back again. Thanks to the volunteers for keeping things running. We were a little short handed, but it worked. I think we set a new record by being finished with shooting by a little after 11:00. Everyone was packed and gone by noon. See you all next month when it will be warmer.
