Bell City Rifle Club

Southington Connecticut
22 April . 2017

The Bell City benchrest season opened with the chance for rain. It turned into actual rain with just enough wind and calm to make things interesting. Matt Guthrie, after a two-year layoff, came back to show us how to do it. Matt's best friend was Creedmore as John Cascarino had to settle for second in VFS.

Hunter Class was led by Peter Hills. Dennis McMullen placed first in Factory, and Roger Therien took first in Custom.

Even with the weather not cooperating, everyone was in good spirits and enjoyed the day. Thanks for the support. It's always a good day when friends get together for a day of competition. Thanks to Gail Mattson for scoring and Tim O'Mara for helping with targets.
