

September 18th, 2017

On Saturday September 16th & 17th, MSSA Memphis hosted the third and fourth IBS 600 Yard Matches of the season. (We should have named Saturday's Match the 'Larry Averitt Invitational' & Sunday's Match the 'Power's Saw Massacre')! Conditions were great with very mild variable winds and sunny to partly cloudy skies. Temps were in the upper 80's with fairly moderate mirage. Despite not being able to see clearly at 600 yards, the shooting was very good. By the end of the matches, everyone was looking for a bottle of water and a change of clothes. The humidity and the mosquitos were at the top of the scale.

Despite every effort by the upper end of the shooting contingent, the winners hammered on with a consistent pounding. We had two sub 0.800 groups during the matches, with lots of small groups being fired. Winning score was also a tough subject. During the course of the weekend, there were 464 fired targets, with 165 total groups 2.000" or less and 56 Targets with a Score of 50.

"Man, it's getting really tough to win"! That's a quote from DBD.

We appreciate all the shooters that have participated at MSSA so far this year, and hope to see you and lots of others when the 2017 National Championship arrives in about four weeks on October 20th and 21st.

September 18th, 2017

On Saturday September 16th & 17th, MSSA Memphis hosted the third and fourth IBS 600 Yard Matches of the season. (We should have named Saturday's Match the 'Larry Averitt Invitational' & Sunday's Match the 'Power's Saw Massacre')! Conditions were great with very mild variable winds and sunny to partly cloudy skies. Temps were in the upper 80's with fairly moderate mirage. Despite not being able to see clearly at 600 yards, the shooting was very good. By the end of the matches, everyone was looking for a bottle of water and a change of clothes. The humidity and the mosquitos were at the top of the scale.

Despite every effort by the upper end of the shooting contingent, the winners hammered on with a consistent pounding. We had two sub 0.800 groups during the matches, with lots of small groups being fired. Winning score was also a tough subject. During the course of the weekend, there were 464 fired targets, with 165 total groups 2.000" or less and 56 Targets with a Score of 50.

"Man, it's getting really tough to win"! That's a quote from DBD.

We appreciate all the shooters that have participated at MSSA so far this year, and hope to see you and lots of others when the 2017 National Championship arrives in about four weeks on October 20th and 21st.
